Many thanks are owed to those who have helped me to finally bring this to fruition. My friends and colleagues at the University of East London have given me much useful help and advice over the years, particularly Susanna Radstone, Kate Hodgkin, Reina Lewis and Peter Morey. Special thanks are owed to my PhD supervisors, Christine Gledhill and Peter Brooker, who were patient, supportive and generous throughout. My friends and family have supported my work in many different ways. Connie and Sue Garrett were particularly encouraging; I am indebted to Hugh Hadfield for his technical support and to Paul and Maureen Hadfield for looking after the children while we were working. Many of my friends with young children also helped out with high-quality child-care – sometimes at short notice – particularly Gemma McCarthy, Marion Herbert, Tracey Woods and Christine Bottomley. Finally, very special thanks are owed to Paul, Matty and Esme Hadfield for allowing me the time and space to complete this.

For permission to use the images from Down with Love, Sleepless in Seattle, The Hours, Out of Sight, Mona Lisa Smile and Far from Heaven, the author and publisher thank the Kobal Collection.
