

Performance Interventions

Series Editors: Elaine Aston, University of Lancaster, and Bryan Reynolds, University of California, Irvine

Performance Interventions is a series of monographs and essay collections on theatre, performance, and visual culture that share an underlying commitment to the radical and political potential of the arts in our contemporary moment, or give consideration to performance and to visual culture from the past deemed crucial to a social and political present. Performance Interventions moves transversally across artistic and ideological boundaries to publish work that promotes dialogue between practitioners and academics, and interactions between performance communities, educational institutions, and academic disciplines.

We would like to thank our Theatre Studies colleagues Andrew Quick, Karen Juers-Munby and Nigel Stewart for their support, and Lancaster University for granting us periods of study leave for this project. A particular thank you to Andy Smith for cheering us both along when the going was at its toughest. Special thanks to Ed Venn's phone app.

Geraldine Harris: warm thanks to the friends who came with me to see shows when Elaine was unavailable and I was too weedy to go alone: Jan Ashcroft, Adam Grieg, Cathy Ingram, Phil Purvis and Sofia Strid. Thanks also to Keir Ashcroft for her comments on Chapter 7. As ever, profound thanks to the one and only Colin Knapp (best friend of over thirty years).

Elaine Aston: gratitude to my mother, June, for the Sunday telephone conversations about her theatre-going that were a source of inspiration for this book. Thanks to Maggie who came with me on a mother-daughter outing to Mamma Mia! and to Mark O'Thomas, Janelle Reinelt, Brian Singleton and David Whitton for their warm and supportive friendship. Also to Daniel for dealing with computer glitches and putting up with late dinners.

To Paula Kennedy and Ben Doyle at Palgrave Macmillan, a thank you from both of us for your patience, diligence and commitment to this project.

Finally, we would both like to mark the memory of our mutual friend and colleague in LICA Professor Nigel Whitely. We miss the way his wit, his humour and his ridiculous ties could brighten up the dullest meeting.
